Contract Terms and Conditions

Client agrees that the handler will make entries using an entry service. The client agrees to add their dog and credit card to the handler's account with Entries On Time (800-992-8955) entry service. The client is responsible for any errors made to the entry service and assumes the responsibility of correcting any errors.

It is understood that if the client pulls a dog after close of entries or within 24 hours of the closing date for a given show(s) it will result in assessment of full handling fees for said show(s). Extreme emergencies will be considered on an individual basis. In the event a show(s) is cancelled (i.e. weather) expenses will still be charged.

It is understood the owner of the dog will assume all cost incurred by the handler for any medical treatment required for the while under the supervision of the handler. It is further agreed that the handler shall determine the need for any veterinary care for the animal while under their supervision.

It is the client's responsibility to advise the handler of any habits the dog may have that could possibly present a problem in giving safe and adequate care at the handler's facility or at the dog show(s). It is also the client's responsibility to furnish instructions and medication if the dog is on medication of any kind. All clients are required to keep their dog's shots current per their vet's recommendation.

It is understood that the handler, Ann Rairigh, may also exhibit dogs that she owns or bred. In the case that multiple dogs win their classes, she stays on the highest priority client dog. In the case of a ring conflict, priority will be at the discretion of the handler. Owners who have supported the handler consistently and over the longest period of time will have priority. If necessary, a competent substitute handler will be secured to show your dog and the normal handling fee will be charged. In the event that no competent handler is available the dog will be marked absent, and no handling fee will not be charged.

A $1000.00 deposit is required at the onset of hiring. Payment is due and payable upon receipt of each invoice an 10% late fee will be assessed on accounts 30 days past due. In the event that the bill is not settled within 60 days, the deposit will be used to bring the balance owed down. The dog will no longer be entered or shown until the balance is paid in full and a new $1000.00 deposit is received. Any and all disputes regarding payment which cannot be agreed upon satisfactorily between client and handler will be settled in courthouse of Ann Rairigh's choice in her state and county. It is further agreed that the client shall pay any and all reasonable legal fees and court costs should this action become necessary to collect any indebtedness.

It is understood that dogs will be returned only upon full payment of the bill. It is also understood that board and maintenance will be charged while the dog is being held awaiting settlement of the outstanding bill.
